Enjoy Your Bridge

The West Wales Bridge Association in Partnership with Bridge Overseas is proud to be hosting the second Celtic Congress in conjunction with the WBU and the CBAI. Participants of all standards can enjoy playing alongside a series of International Wales v Ireland matches with teams of International, Area and Club standard; together with a Committee match. Congress members can participate in green-pointed events or choose to play 'holiday bridge' for which Bridge Overseas is renowned. Just enjoy your bridge.

Fishguard Bay Getting there

By Ferry

The Hotel overlooks the Harbour. From the Ferry Port at the first roundabout take the third exit. Go over the railway bridge; bear right at the next corner; the Hotel is sign-posted about half a mile further along. NB: There will be a pick up for foot passengers.

By Train

There is a regular service to Fishguard. WWBA will organise lifts from the Station on Friday.

Fishguard Bay Hotel

The Fishguard Bay Hotel is nestled in woodland above Fishguard Harbour, adjacent to some of the most beautiful coastline in Wales.

The hotel is steeped in history and was the base for Peter O'Toole, Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor during the filming of "Under Milkwood" in the early 1970's. The adjacent Pembrokeshire coast is world renowned, so we have an excellent facility for playing bridge plus a base for touring an area of outstanding beauty.

The hotel offers easy access for ferry travellers from Rosslare and has accommodation for – 100 people in 65 rooms. We would like to encourage people to book early and share if possible as this will allow maximum number of players to be resident in the hotel.
